Christmas

Merry Christmas!

Welcome to Worship at Federated Church

“Every Year”

by Rev. Sarah Speed

My heart and I have an agreement.
Every year we show up here—
here in the sanctuary,
here with the candles and tall ceilings,
here with the creaky church pews
and the songs of silent nights.

My heart and I have an agreement.
Every year we show up here—
At the end of the year,
After another 12 months of humanity, of me
Trying to keep it all together,
Trying to keep my head above water,
Trying to keep up the appearances.

Every year we show up here.
We drop it all. We leave it at the door.
We come into this space, and I could swear it feels different.
Maybe it's God. Maybe it's hope. Maybe it's love.
But whatever it is, I need it every year, so we show up here.
Tell us again the story of tonight.

My heart needs it.

Dear Christmas worshippers,
Welcome on this holiest of nights. Whatever it is that has drawn you here, welcome. Wherever this last year has taken you; whatever hopes, fears, loves, and longings you carry here tonight, we're glad you're here. May Emmanuel—the “God-who-is-with-us”—meet you here in this place and amidst it all as you enter once again into this sacred story. For God's life-altering promises are for you and for our world. May your soul feel its worth; may our weary world rejoice!

Wishing you a blessed Christmas,
Pastor Eric

Throughout the service, please join in reading those parts printed in bold
*Today we will be taking communion. We invite you to participate however you're best able.
Feel free to use whatever you have for the "bread and cup"— whether that's bread and grape juice or a cookie and coffee. God takes our ordinary offerings, whatever they are, and blesses them as we share them together!*

Sharing Prayers of Joy & for Healing

Silent Christmas Reflection

When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings have returned home,
When the shepherds are back with their flock,
Then the work of Christmas begins:
To find the lost, to heal the broken, and feed the hungry;
To release the prisoner, rebuild the nations, and bring peace to all,
For this is the music of God's heart.

"The Work of Christmas," by Howard Thurman

How might you—and how might you help us at Federated—live out this Christmas invitation in the days and year ahead? What are your intentions for this year?

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Christmas Affirmation

Friends, hear the Good News of Christmas: The Light of the World is come. So, let us light candles to shine in every darkness.

Wherever despair keeps watch, we will light candles of Hope.

Wherever fear crowds in, we will light candles of Peace.

Wherever grief overwhelms, we will light candles of Joy.

To inspire all our living, we will light candles of Love.

Sharing Holy Communion

We practice an “open table,” which means everyone is welcome to partake. There is no creed you must first confess or dogma you must first believe. God meets us where we are—amidst our questions and doubts, our fears and failures—and offers us bread and cup: nourishment after what’s been, and a blessing for what lies ahead.

Sung Response

“Mary, Woman of the Promise”

sung to tune of “Servant Song”

Mary, woman of the promise, vessel of your people’s dreams:
Through your open, willing spirit, waters of God’s goodness streamed.

Mary, song of Holy Wisdom sung before the world began:
Faithful to the Word within you, as you bore God’s wondrous plan.

Mary, morning star of justice; mirror of the Radiant Light:
In the shadows of life’s journey, be a beacon for our sight.

Mary, model of compassion, wounded by your offspring’s pain:
When our hearts are torn by sorrow, teach us how to love again.

YOU ARE WELCOME HERE!

A warm WELCOME to those visiting or checking out Federated Church!

We're glad you're here! Are you looking for more information about who we are, what we do, or how to get involved? Would you like to meet with Pastor Eric or get connected to others? In the book rack on the back of the pew toward the center aisle, you will find a green or red "pew pad" with a yellow bookmark-sized "Connection Card" inside. Fill it out and place it in the offering plate as they are passed around during the "Offertory," and we will be in touch with you soon!

Federated Church is an Open & Affirming Community

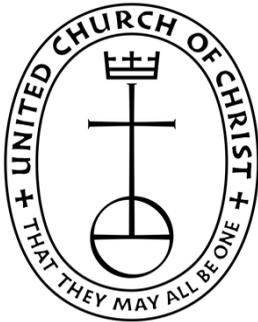

In a time of deep division and vitriolic rhetoric around issues of race, ethnicity, gender, and sexuality, and where the dignity of people living with disabilities or mental health issues are often ignored, demonized, or turned into a joke, we promise to:

Welcome all people of every age, gender, race, national origin, faith expression, marital status & family structure, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression, physical ability, mental or emotional condition, economic and social status, and educational background to share in the life, leadership, ministry, fellowship, worship, sacraments, responsibilities, blessings, and joys of our church family.

The Rainbow Flag: We proudly display a rainbow flag at the front of our sanctuary as a visual declaration of God's extravagant and inclusive love, as well as of our own "promise of welcome" to all people. Our prayer is that all can be their truest selves here. This flag serves as a particular signal that our church is a safe and affirming space for LGBTQ persons to be, to belong, to lead, to question, and to grow in faith.
